DR. ROMMEL C. BAUTISTA, CESO V
Schools Division Superintendent
Department of Education- Division of Antipolo City

Dear Sir:

NORPHIL Innovative Center of Education, a long time Continuing Professional Development provider accredited by the Professional Regulation Commission, invites your teachers, school heads and supervisors to a one-day National Seminar Workshop entitled "Continuing Professional Development: An Ethical and Professional Obligation".

The one-day seminar-workshop will be held at Villa Lorenza Resort, Halayhayin, Pililla, Rizal on February 17, 2018 (Saturday) from 8:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M.

Those who participate in the one-day seminar for professional teachers will be given 9 CPD units by the CPD Council for Professional Teachers. R.A. 10912, otherwise known as the Continuing Professional Development (CPD) Act of 2016, requires all licensed professionals to show proof of 45 CPD units for the renewal of licenses every three years starting 2017. The CPD Law and the IRR will be further explained in the seminar.

The lecturers are Dr. Ruben E. Faltado III, Professor of the College of Education of the Technological Institute of the Philippines and Dr. Brenda B. Corpuz, Dean, College of Education, Principal of Senior High School Department also of the Technological Institute of the Philippines, and past consultant to DepEd for the K to 12 Program. Both are national figures in education and book authors in education.

A registration fee of Php 1,300 is charged per participant for lunch and snacks, kit, venue, travel expenses, accommodation and honoraria of speakers.

For inquiries and reservations, please feel free to contact us at 0925-7161495 / 09158407610 / 09394608078.

Thank you very much.

Sincerely yours,

BRENDA B. CORPUZ, Ph. D.
