LTR-_____-2017/DIV2

19 December 2017

Sirs/Madam:

The Department respectfully transmits to your respective offices the attached letter from Seoul Peace Prize Selection Committee Chairman, Kwon E-hyock inviting nominations for the 14th Seoul Peace Prize Award.

The Seoul Peace Prize aims to recognize those who have made great contributions in promoting global peace, harmony and reconciliation between nations on the basis of the ideals of the 24th Seoul Olympic Games held in Seoul, South Korea in 1988.

Nominees should have outstanding contributions in the following areas:

- Maintenance or restoration of peace in a disputed region or the world at large
- Promotion of understanding and reconciliation among peoples and nations
- Human development projects or initiatives
- Peace building through the advancement of human rights, democracy, feminism, environment and science and technology

The winner will be selected by the Committee and announced during a press conference. The awardee will receive a diploma, plaque and honorarium of US$200,000.

In this regard, the Department respectfully requests your respective Offices to nominate suitable candidates for the Seoul Peace Prize. The deadline for the submission of duly accomplished nomination forms is on 31 March 2018. We would therefore highly appreciate receiving your nomination(s) by 26 March 2018. An advance copy of the nomination(s) can be emailed at: aspac.div2@dfa.gov.ph.

The Department hopes that this will merit your kind consideration and appropriate action.

Thank you and best regards.

Very truly yours,
For the Secretary of Foreign Affairs:

EMILIO T. FERNANDEZ
Acting Head of Office

December 2017

Dear Sir/Madam

The Seoul Peace Prize Selection Committee is pleased to invite you to nominate a candidate(s) for the 14th Seoul Peace Prize to be awarded in the autumn of 2018.

The Seoul Peace Prize was created in February 1990 to commemorate the success of the 24th Seoul Olympic Games held in Seoul in September 1988, an event widely recognized for its historic contribution to global peace and harmony. In the Seoul Olympics, 160 nations all over the world got together for the first time in many years, thus paving the way for East-West detente and world peace.

The objective of the Seoul Peace Prize is to encourage and recognize an individual(s) or institution(s) for endeavors contributing to the development of a more peaceful world and to the fostering of friendly relations, mutual understanding and reconciliation among peoples and nations.

The Seoul Peace Prize is an international prize awarded biennially. The laureate receives a diploma, a plaque and an honorarium of US$200,000. Distinguished figures and institutions at home and abroad are asked to nominate candidates for the prize.

Nominees, as persons or organizations in being, should deserve indisputable recognition for their outstanding contribution in the following areas :

- Maintenance or restoration of peace in a disputed region or the world at large
- Promotion of understanding and reconciliation among peoples and nations
- Human development projects or initiatives
- Peace building through the advancement of human rights, democracy, feminism, environment, culture, sports, and science and technology

Your nomination(s) can be completed on the attached form and sent to us by March 31, 2018. They can also be made on the internet or e-mail. Your active participation would be deeply appreciated.

Sincerely,
