10 May 2018

Lito Palomar
Department of Education - Antipolo

Dear Mr. Palomar:

The Film Development Council of the Philippines in partnership with the Department of Humanities will hold PLANTING SEEDS: THE FUTURE OF PHILIPPINE CINEMA, a faculty symposium at the CAS Auditorium, CAS Annex 1 from 9:00AM-5:00PM on May 29 and 30, 2018.

The two-day event aims to provide teachers with a basic course on the arts and craft of filmmaking and to highlight the importance of film in education. The symposium is open and free for all educators from Southern Luzon who are handling arts courses.

The program flow is as follows:

May 29

8am REGISTRATION
9am-1pm UNDERSTANDING FILM THROUGH EDUCATION
with Carlo Gabriel Pangilinan of University of the Philippines Diliman
1-2pm Lunch Break
2-6pm CREATING FILM SYNERGY IN THE STUDENT BODY
with Seymour Barros Sanchez of Far Eastern University

May 30

8am REGISTRATION
9am-5pm BASIC TOOLS: A CRASH COURSE ON FILMMAKING FOR EDUCATORS with Raymond Red

FDCCP will be serving lunch for all registered participants.

Please find attached Commission on Higher Education (CHED) endorsement and the list of options for your accommodation in the area.

To confirm your attendance, kindly reply to this e-mail not later than May 23, 2018.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Dr. Leonora Fajutagana
Chair, Department of Humanities
