CONSUMER SUMMIT OF DTI

Educated consumers are vital to building a stronger economy. Consumer with high level of confidence are encouraged to experiment and shop around which boost competition and create growth. Consumer education helps the consumers in protecting themselves against trade malpractices. It also helps them in making judicious purchases and prevents them from being victimized by scammers. It is in this endeavor that DTI-Rizal is relentless in its effort to reach out to more consumers.

In lieu with this, the Department of Trade and Industry in the promotion of consumer rights and interest will conduct Consumer Summit at Ground Floor, Entertainment Center Phase II, Sta. Lucia Mall, Cainta, Rizal on October 5, 2018 from 10:00 AM to 4:00 PM.

The seminar is free. Meals and afternoon snacks will be served.

Fifty (50) TLE teachers are invited to participate in the said activity. Should you wish to join please feel free to call Ms. Coney or Joanna at tel. no. 695-1711.

DR. ROMMEL BAUTISTA
Schools Division Superintendent
Department of Education – Division of Antipolo
Antipolo City, Rizal

Dear Dr. Bautista,

Thank you for being an active partner of the Department of Trade and Industry in the promotion of consumer rights and interest. Educated consumers are vital to building a stronger economy. Consumers with high level of confidence are encouraged to experiment and shop around which boosts competition and create growth. Consumer education helps the consumers in protecting themselves against trade malpractices. It also helps them in making judicious purchases and prevents them from being victimized by scammers. It is in this endeavor that DTI – Rizal is relentless in its effort to reach out to more consumers. Towards this end, we will conduct Consumer Summit at Ground Floor, Entertainment Center Phase II, Sta. Lucia Mall, Cainta, Rizal on October 5, 2018 from 10:00 am to 4:00 p.m. It is an event which aims to bring together consumers to discuss key consumer issues relating to safety and protection against different types of scams.

In this connection, may we invite fifty (50) TLE teachers to participate in the abovementioned activity. We do not want our consumers especially our teachers to fall prey to unscrupulous traders and scammers. Also, we believe that teachers are in a better position to share whatever information they will learn from the "Consumer Summit" to their students and other people around them. The seminar is for free. Meals and afternoon snacks will be served. We are sending our proposed tentative program for your reference. Should you have further inquiries regarding the abovementioned activity, please feel free to call us at tel. no. 695-1711 c/o Ms. Coney or Ms. Joanna.

We look forward to a continuing working relationship with your office

Very truly yours,

MERCEDES A. PARREÑO, CESO V
