THRU: MR. ARNEL BUENA

Dear Dr. Bautista,

Greetings of Peace!

The DIOCESE OF ANTIPOLO is the local unit of the Roman Catholic Church with jurisdiction comprising the province of Rizal, Antipolo City and Marikina City. It is headed by Bishop Francisco M. de Leon. The Diocese of Antipolo Commission on Migrants and Itinerant People (DACMI) is the service arm of the diocese that is concerned with giving pastoral care for migrants and itinerant people especially the OFWs.

You may already be aware by now that an on going formation of teachers and guidance counselors is already taking place. This organization is known as SDOFP Diocesan Council of Formators. They had their first meeting for this year, last 28 August, 2018 at the Antipolo National High School.

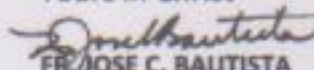

In connection with the continuing activities of the organization, we would like to put into your calendar, the following dates, where we also seek your approval and permit for your guidance counselors and teachers of public and private elementary and secondary level who would be attending. October 12, 2018, 1:00PM – 4:00 PM at Marikina Catholic School, J.P. Rizal St. cor V. Gomez St., Sta. Elena, Marikina City beside the Diocesan Shrine and Parish of Our Lady of the Abandoned. (Please see attached minutes).

Other schedules include: 01 December 2018, 8:00-4:00 p.m. at Holy Infant Jesus Academy, Antipolo City, Sons and Daughters of OFWS (SDO Congress) cum Migration Quiz Bee, and Diocesan Election of SDO Officers. 15 December 2018 Local TOSDOSAW Awarding at Our Lady of Peace School (OLPS) Antipolo City. In between would be invitations for the Congress and TOSDOSAW Awarding which we believe you will also support.

We encourage as much delegation for the SDO Congress and contestants for the TOSDOSAW Awards. Let us prove that we have the best OFW children in our diocese.

Thank you and God bless.

Yours in Christ

FR. JOSE C. BAUTISTA
DACMI Director
