Dear Dr. Bautista,

The Asian School of Hospitality Arts is uniquely designed to provide real world education that strengthens the technical skills of students and immerses them in real work situations. As part of The Cravings Group, ASHA is run by industry practitioners with the experience, track record and professional network that will give students a great advantage in the workforce.

In line with this, we are respectfully requesting your good office to allow us in conducting the following activities to public and private secondary schools in Antipolo City.

- Career guidance activity
- Distribution of flyers
- Gathering of survey forms / database
- Inviting grade 12 completers to join our campus tour on November 2018

We are looking forward that you will allow us to work hand in hand with your office in providing better quality education and skills for the future aspirants of this generation.

You may contact us at 570-9246 and 0955-210-9641

Thank you very much.

Sincerely,

Erie Vi R. Marasigan
