2. The speech is to be presented in 5 – 7 minutes in length. Judges are instructed to use their judgment regarding under or over time limit speeches. It is at the judges' discretion how the 4-5 minute and the 7-8 minute speech will reflect in the score.
3. Appropriate gestures are allowed. Props are not allowed.
4. The contestant should use up-to-date factual information.
5. The style should be appropriate to the message of the speech. A dramatic presentation is not acceptable. A dramatic presentation is considered anything that is read or preformed that has been previously written by another author; a short story, a poem, etc. Although quotes to support a position or statement are appropriate, they may not dominate the speech, and should be appropriately cited. Dramatic presentations are also defined, for the purposes of this contest, to include acting as a thing or another person. This rule is not to be interpreted to rule out the use of emotion.
6. The speech should appeal to a broad audience.
7. No copyrighted speeches shall be used in the contest.

13. The judges score the contestants in 4 criteria: effectiveness, subject matter, delivery, and decorum/attire. Contestants are given a score of 1-5 (5 being the best) in each sub-criterion. The scores are added together (50 being perfect). The judges' scores will be averaged. The average will determine which contestants will be the champion, in the second place, and in the third place.
14. Each judge has attested to providing a fair and impartial scoring of each contestant.
15. The Judges will give each contestant a score and in the "event of a tie," the judges will be the one to identify the contestant who will be the winning contestant.
16. Regardless of any opinion, the judges' overall decision is final and irrevocable.
17. All efforts are made for accuracy. In the event of a mistake, every effort will be made to correct it.
18. Ties will be handled by the contest director.
19. Any concerns or issues shall be dealt with by the contest director.
