Division of City Schools – Antipolo City
DepEd Division Office, Antipolo City

Dear Sir:

We are pleased to announce the holding of the 4th T.I.P. Inter High School Regional Oratorical and Academic Competition 2019 for interested Grade 12 Senior High Schools. This competition is held to honor the T.I.P. founders, Engr. Demetrio A. Quirino Jr. and Dr. Teresita U. Quirino, whose passion and faith on the capability of the youth in nation building are enshrined in the school they founded, the Technological Institute of the Philippines.

In this connection, we cordially invite interested Senior High Schools to send a team of Grade 12 Senior High School students from HUMSS/General Academic/Arts and Media Strands together with their coach/es who will accompany them to represent the school in the said event. They will be pitted against other Grade 12 Senior High School students in Oration, On-the-Spot Essay Writing and General Information and Current Event Quiz Bee Competitions. We also encourage parents, friends and other supporters to come along. The competition will be held in on Friday, January 11, 2019 from 8:00 am to 4:00 pm at the Seminar Room of Building 9, T.I.P. Quezon City. Registration is ongoing until the day of competition on January 11, 2019.

Attached is the brochure containing the Rules and Mechanics of the competition. We encourage pre-registration online by visiting this link <http://bit.ly/2593EXR>. Rationale

This competition is in honor the T.I.P. founders, Engr. Demetrio A. Quino Jr. and Dr. Tesita U. Quino, whose passion and faith on the capacity of the youth nation-building, is enshrined in the school they founded, the Technological Institute of the Philippines. These youths will now be pitted against each other in a form of Academic Competitions to exalt the indispensable role of affordably-adequate education in empowering future citizens of this country as inheritors of a progressive nation, capable of doing great things for their family, community, country and the world as a whole.

General Guidelines

- This contest is free of charge and open to all Grade 12 students enrolled in HUMS, General Academic, and Arts and Media Strands in the Public and Private Senior High Schools, including those of the Science and Technical Schools, and/or those students who are incoming college freshmen in June 2019, in the nearby or regional vicinity.
- All contestants, coaches, and alternate contestants (if any) must be registered in order to participate in the contests as well as to ensure safety and security. There is on-site registration in T.I.P., but participants are encouraged to register online by visiting the link <http://tly/?S93EXR> to avoid delay. If the contingent is already pre-registered online, a need for on-site registration, unless, there are changes in the names of contestants. The Registration Committee will be in-charge of this.
- Contestants and coaches should come to the venue of the competition in their complete School uniform with School ID or, as the case may be, in their PE Uniform with ID.
- Participating schools are allowed to bring other student-spectators aside from the registered contestants provided the names of these additional student-spectators are to be registered during the registration period. They should likewise wear the official school uniform/PE uniform with ID.
- The contest is a whole-day event thus contestants/participants are advised to bring their packed lunch.
- For the registration, there shall be a Career Talk and Campus Tour of T.I.P. facilities. All participants are enjoined to participate in these events for them to be aware of the curricular offerings and to see T.I.P. up close and personal. Coaches/Trainers may join too, but not required, and they may stay in the Seminar Room of Building S.
- During a short break, snacks will be served and contestants will now ready themselves for the competitions. The contested events will be Rhetoric and Essay Writing in the morning, and Quiz Bee in the afternoon.

Oratorical Contest

- 1) There shall only be one (1) contestant for each school.
- 2) The medium to be utilized is English Language only.
- 3) The theme shall be "Revitalizing the humanities for a meaningful 21st Century Education."
- 4) Contest piece should be an original composition of the student or the coach/trainer and a copy of which should be submitted to the committee on the day of the competition and heretofore shall become property of the competition organizers.
- 5) Necessary citations should be reflected when lifting/borrowing words from other sources. A reference or bibliography section should be included in the submission.
