3.2 advances participants' personality development and critical thinking skills as they engage in constructive discussions with other participants;

3.3 extends opportunities to develop participants' presentation skills by interrelating/interacting with other researchers; and

3.4 develops the spirit of competitiveness in each and every participant.

4. The target participants are senior high school students, faculty, staff, professionals, and other researchers including the SDO's Senior Education Program Specialists (SEPS) for Planning and Research and Research Coordinators to interrelate with their counterparts in a friendly yet competitive environment.

5. Interested researchers are encouraged to prepare and submit their research entries to the Official RACE 2019 website www.race2transform.com on or before DECEMBER 14, 2018.

6. This one- day event will be conducted on FEBRUARY 28, 2019 which will host both competition and exhibition. The COMPETITION is open for all high school participants only while the EXHIBITION is open for all students, teachers and professionals. The conference is open to the public (whether from public or private schools) and everyone is invited to submit proposals for papers.

7. All abstracts submitted for competition and exhibition will be accepted for publication.

8. A registration fee of One Thousand and Fifty Pesos (Php 1,050.00) for competition and Nine Hundred Fifty Pesos (Php 950.00) for exhibition shall be collected. It will cover poster printing, kits, AM/PM snacks and publication processing. Expenses relative to this activity shall be charged against local funds subject to the usual accounting rules and regulations.
