Dear Dr. Bautista,

Greetings in Christ!

In commemoration of the Tercentenary of the death of our Founder, St. John Baptist De La Salle, the Lasallian Family in the Philippines will be having a pilgrimage of St. La Salle’s relic to various La Salle institutions in the country. The relic, a fragment of St. La Salle’s bone, will be at De La Salle-College of Saint Benilde Antipolo Campus from May 20, 2019 until June 18, 2019.

As a way of sharing the inspiring life and charism of St. John Baptist De La Salle, Universal Patron of Teachers, the apostolic community of De La Salle-College of Saint Benilde would like to invite teachers, parishioners, and partner communities for public veneration at the Benilde Antipolo chapel. This will be done during Fridays from 8:00 AM – 5:00 PM. Special accommodations can be considered if requested.

The relic would also be brought to the Shrine of Our Lady of Peace and Good Voyage on June 18, 2019 (Monday) at 8:00 AM for public veneration, followed by a Votive Mass at 9:00 AM to be presided by His Excellency Most Reverend Nolly Buco, JCD, D.D., Auxiliary Bishop of the Diocese of Antipolo together with Reverend Father Reynante U. Tolentino, Parish Administrator and Shrine Rector. This votive mass will be attended by the communities of De La Salle-College of Saint Benilde Antipolo and La Salle College Antipolo. After the votive mass, the relic will be transferred for visitation to La Salle College Antipolo.

We look forward to your participation in this inspiring and momentous event. For inquiries, you may contact us at 09672352426 or 667-13-00 local 7291. Thank you.
