SUBJECT VISION AND HEARING SCREENING OF ALL LEARNERS OF THE CITY SCHOOLS DIVISION OF ANTIPolo

DATE JUNE 19, 2019

Pursuant to DepEd Memorandum No. 243 s 2007 – entitled the Universal Medical and Dental Check-up, Executive Order No. 595 known as the Health Education Reform Order (HERO) of 2006, and Department Order 43 s of 2011 “Strengthening of the health and Nutrition Programs for the Achievement of Education For All” (EFA), Vision and Hearing screening shall be done to all learners of the City Schools Division of Antipolo.

All class advisers are to conduct vision and hearing screening to all their learners from Kindergarten to grade 6 in the Elementary Schools and from grades 7 to 10 for the Junior and grades 11 and 12 for the Senior High Schools from July 1, 2019 to July 26, 2019.

MAPEH Teachers together with the Clinic Teachers shall supervise all screening procedures and shall, collect, and consolidate all the results of the activity. The consolidated reports shall be submitted to the SHN section of the SGOD of the City Schools Division of Antipolo for further analysis and evaluation on or before the 31st of July 2019.

For clarifications please email Dr. Rico Desiree M. Reyes and/or Mr. Salvador Q. Waniwan Jr. at depedantipolo.medical@deped.gov.ph. Vision and hearing coordinators are also encouraged to download Workplace and Workchat using their deped email account and join SDO Antipolo – Health and nutrition section.

For strict compliance.
